MY TEENAGE BLACKOUT

Animated short film by Basile Khatir

10 minutes • 1.77 • French • Color • 2024

SYNOPSIS

At a party, Tristan swallowed a caterpillar while downing a tequila shot. Ever since then, he's been in a coma, thoughts running through his head – about that girl at the party, the nurse smoking in his room, his overbearing mother, and the fact that he'll never get to change his Facebook profile picture ever again. Basically, Tristan is just like any other teenager.

BASILE KHATIR BIOGRAPHY

Originally an optics engineer, Basile Khatir went into directing completely self-taught. After directing a few short films within an association, Basile directed the music video THE CHILDREN SING for the French band PARPAING PAPIER, then MY TEENAGE BLACKOUT, his first animated short produced by a production company. He is currently working on the development of his second short film, TEENAGERS DISAPPEAR.
